

WHOLE NO. 362

Captain the Hon. Augustus Henry, Archibaldson, for conspicuous bravery at Bolandpur, on the 28th September, 1857. The Light Dragoons had charged through the town and were re-forming in the Serai: the ene-attempted to close the entrance by drawing their carts across it so as to shut in the cavalry and form a cover from which to fire upon the British. Captain Anson, taking a lance, dashed out to the gateway, and knocked the drivers off their carts. Owing to a wound in his left hand received at Delhi, he could not stop his horse.

He rode into the middle of the enemy, and fired a volley at him one ball passing through his coat. At Lucknow, at the assault of Secundra Bagh, on the 16th of November 1857, he entered with the storming party the gates being burst open. He had his horse killed, and himself slightly wounded. He

Many of the stories combine with a military bravery, the most affectionate devotion to others. Take the case of Lt. General Singh, who, at Lucknow, was Corporal Sinnott, who, at Lucknow, on the night of October, when out with three others, "to rescue Lieutenant Gibaut, who was carrying out water to extinguish a fire in the breastwork, had been mortally wounded, lay outside. They brought in the body unharmed. Lance-Corporal Sinnott was twice wounded. His comrades unanimously elected him to the post of sergeant."

ny. He had previously repeatedly accompanied Lieutenant Gibaut, when he carried water to extinguish the fire." Or the case of the largeant W. Napier, at Azimghur, who saved his comrade, Private Benjamin Mills, remained with him at the hazard of his then surrounded by Sepoys, bandaged wounds under fire, and then carried him safety to the convoy." We may deplore fact that so long after the mission of per act continue to be necessary in the wor but we still have barbarous enemies, treach ous Sepoys, and perhaps ambitious neighb earer home, towards whom a manly freedom essential, not only to our own independence but to the due performance of our trust.

COUNTY OF NORTH WELLINGTON.—V are happy to learn that at a large meeting the Opposition held in Fergus yesterday M

James Ross, late Warden of the County, is chosen as candidate for the approaching election. The Reformers have a worthy standard-bearer in Mr. Ross, and they must not be afraid to fight him. Let our friends wait until an opponent appears, but commence the campaign at once.—Globe.

Georgia one of the United States America, the freest country upon earth, established the African slave trade. Telegram from Savannah dated the 11th in says: The Republican learns on good authority that the yacht Wanderer succeeded in evading the vigilance of the cruisers.

UTAH.—Utah news to the 26th of November has been received. The story to the effect that Brigham Young had been sum-by the U. S. District Court to answer the charge of falsely imprisoning the G. is pronounced untrue. The weather represented to be very severe, the snow on the mountains being quite deep. A great number of Sioux Indians were encamped on the Platte river, who were preparing to inon the Pawnees, in conjunction with the Cheyennes. Gold is reported to have been discovered on the banks of a small lake near Wash Hollow, ninety dollars worth of which was collected in a short time, including the nugget, the value of which was twenty dollars.

✂ The London Prototype of yesterday says;—We have just been made aware of a fact that forgeries on the Bank of Montreal of the denomination of $5 bills are freely circulated in the West. So well is the forgery executed that some of the first mercantile houses have been imposed upon by the spurious bills.

The manner in which the impostor was effected is by converting one dollar bills into fives. The number five is stamped over the number one so perfectly that all traces of the original number are effaced, this probably having been effected by some chemical application before the number was impressed. In the body of the note words five dollars are printed in bourgeois capitals, so as to leave no trace of the original discernable. The signatures of the bank officials remain perfect; and detection is rendered exceedingly difficult. The ordinary bank of course, is easily able to detect the cheat; but ordinary person might be, and a ing the forgery is by looking at the "watermark," which shows upon the paper the number of the note is printed' holding it to the light. The note contains the real number of the note. We have heard that similar forgeries are a common sight upon the Bank of Upper Canada but we have not had an account of the forger.

THE WAR OF THE PATHIES.--The expected battle of Allopathy and Homœopathy for the body of the poor fellow who died of a hernia, has been prevented at least for the present. The good sense of the Grand Jurors of the present session, rejected the bill.

 selected ground of complaint, having been discovered under allopathic practices in this city.
 Would it not be better for the rival practicers to choose some other battle-ground in a court of police or assize? The public, at least, upon it are not slow to see the mark.

They are able to discriminate between proceedings that spring out of a desire to be heard, and proceedings that are the product of professional jealousy; and they draw their own conclusions without waiting for the endorsement of D's of any particular school.
